I see the light. I see the light that's shooting through all my doubts and lies. I see the light

I step the ground. I step the ground that's receiving wide all my sweats an tears and loads and fate. So I step the ground

Born upon a dark sky and shining on my dark side

I feel the wind. I feel the wind that's blowing off all my whines and weakness. I feel the wind

In a sleepless night. with a chaotic mind. I could find my star
that lead me ahead and took me away to the better ways

Born upon a dark sky and shining on my dark side

Here comes the star. Here comes the one
I see the one that rise on me
Shining up all around the world

Here comes the star. Here comes the one
I see the one that rise on me
Shining up all around the world

Here comes the star. Here comes the one
I see the one
It's the brightest in the world
The one

The birds are singing and a road is winding
My heart is beating and I'm in the sound
I wonder what. So let me go / yeah I'm gonna know

Here comes the star. Here comes the one
I see the one that rise on me
Shinning up all around the world

Here comes the star. Here comes the one

I see the one
Adding on me a flash. a brave. "Decide the way"

Here comes the one
Here comes the only one
Here comes the only one
It's the brightest. the brightest in the world
