Verse 1:

It's the 17th,
A week before the day you were born
I've been making big plans
just for over a month
Trying to make this the best birthday
You ever had, show you that You're my baby
Damn all this rain,
Got me feelin something's wrong
Pullin up to my gate,
They keep saying he's gone
An envelope's in between my door
Biggest day, got me panicking
What the hell's this letter gonna read?

Chorus:

Hell No!
You say you don't want it no more
Hell No!
You say you can't gimme what I want
Hell No!
How you just gonna leave when I stayed with you through hard times and you cheated?
Hell No!
I hate to say it but I need it
Hell No!
Ooh God please talk to me
Hell No!
Your so-called love was so deep
When it told you you should run far
And not give a damn about me

How could you leave me, when you see me desperately
in need of what we were before?
How could you leave home?
I cried so many times, but never did it cross my mind,
to ever let it go
How could you leave home?
Didn't even see if we ever meant this shit before, but
we been down this road
How could you leave home?

How could you leave me baby please my heart is beating for the beat we had before
How could you leave home?

Verse 2:

Damn I need you,
Wanna laugh, wanna stand,
Wanna get just one more chance to see you
All my friends, all my kin
Say "Mo just let that end"
But I breathe you
In the driveway,
I found pictures on the ground
Of our first date
I never in a million years
Thought this would be me
I'm trapped in love with somebody
That no longer thinks I'm somebody special
Look at me

Chorus:

Hell No!
You say you don't want it no more
Hell No!
You say you can't gimme what I want
Hell No!
How you just gonna leave when I stayed with you through hard times and you cheated?
Hell No!
I hate to say it but I need it
Hell No!
Ooh God please talk to me
Hell No!
Your so-called love was so deep
That it told you you should run far
And not give a damn about me

How could you leave me, when you see me desperately
in need of what we were before?
How could you leave home?
I cried so many times, but never did it cross my mind to ever let it go
How could you leave home?
Didn't even see if we ever meant this shit before, but
we been down this road
How could you leave home?
How could you leave me baby please my heart is beating for the beat we had before
How could you leave home?

Twista's Rap:

Monica and Twista y'all!

I remember when you said I couldn't get none of that
Then I remember when you let me hit it from the back
I remember we was young and sprung and steady talking on the phone

And we both kept running back to each other we was lovers together forever till the end

I don't really know why I froze up

Planning for a wedding but getting married is scary

Now I got you crying 'cause a nigga didn't show up

I can't really tell you why but I'm Twista from the CHI and I'm dying inside 'cause I know I really want you

So for leaving one day I'ma have to give you the answer girl,

But right now I can't tell you why I left girl,

Sweet personality and good sex girl.

Fear will take a man's life. You supposed to be my wife.

Goodbye, hope to see you in the next world.

Monica's Rap:

You was all up under me,

Acting like you was so in love

Always talking 'bout you a thug

Nigga what you running for?

Copped you a new Benz

You the first one seen on the block with it

Took you to the club

Showed you how to lean with it, rock with it

You was bold when you wanna get some of that

When you wanna hit the hole like running back

Now you actin like you wanna come running back

Hell No! Nigga I don't wanna hear none of that I know you quick, but I spit that shit too so all I really wanna say to you is...how could you leave me baby how could you leave me baby

How could you leave me, when you see me desperately
in need of what we were before?

How could you leave home?

I cried so many times, but never did it cross my mind to
ever let it go

How could you leave home?

Didn't even see if we ever meant this shit before, but
we been down this road

How could you leave home?

How could you leave me baby please my heart is beating for the beat we had before

How could you leave home?

Outro:

All the women I caught you with

Still I didn't leave, but I didn't forget.
All those women I caught you with
Maybe I didn't leave, but I didn't forget.
All those women I caught you with
Boy I didn't leave, but I didn't forget.
All those women, women I caught you with
I didn't leave, but I didn't forget.
