He do it for me (Like nobody else did it)
Anything that I need my man (Do anything to get it)
He makes everyday feel like my birthday
And everytime he come around I wanna celebrate

See I must admit boy I knew from the start
Boy you got me wrapped and you got my heart
The way you work my body really drives me crazy
Ain't nothing better than you calling me your baby

I can't get enough I need him everyday
He does the things I like perfect in everyway
I'm speaking real talk the boys better improve
There ain't no doubt about it because my baby is the truth

And his swag (Just how I like it) his talk (Just how I like it)
and his walk (Just how I like it)
He does everything (Just how I like it)
Ain't no other like him baby you read my mind
And that's just how I like it yeah just how I like it

He's the one that I depend on and if I ever need it He's the shoulder I can lean on
He don't just (Say it) Boy he really (Do it)
And if we gotta (Show it) I know he gonna (Prove it)

See I must admit boy I knew from the start

Boy you got me me wrapped and you got my heart
So right for me you're that type for me
There ain't no question about it baby you're the one for me

I can't get enough I need him everyday
He does the things I like perfect in everyway
I'm speaking real talk the boys better improve
There ain't no doubt about it you know you know
my baby is the truth

And his way (Just how I like it) his talk (Just how I like it)
and his walk (Just how I like it)

He do everything (Just how I like it)
Ain't no other like him baby you read my mind
And that's just how I like it I said that's just how
I like it

I can't get enough I need him everyday
He does the things I like perfect in every way
I'm speaking real talk the boys better improve
There ain't no doubt about it you know you know
my baby is the truth

Then his way (Just how I like it) his talk (Just how I like it)
and his walk (Just how I like it)
He do everything (Just how I like it)
Ain't no other like him baby you read my mind
And that's just how I like it I said that's just how
I like it
