So Let them say it's wrong for me to love you
They can never feel the way
That I do when we kiss
When we're close like this

They can't see inside my soul
They can't know the love we know
All they do is waste their time
They can never change my mind

That is what my heart says
That is what I listen to
That's what my heart feels
That tells me what to do

That is what my heart knows
That's the only only truth I know is real
All I hear is what my heart says to me
What my heart says

Let them say that I'm a fool
To fall so deeply
'Cause they will never ever live
Life so completely

How can they even talk that way
That can't see through my eyes
They can't feel this love inside
All their words don't mean a thing
They can't change the way I feel

That is what my heart says
That is what I listen to
That's what my heart feels
That tells me what to do

That is what my heart knows
That's the only only truth I know is real
All I hear is what my heart says to me
What my heart says

And I have never felt so sure 'bout anything

See you are the one, the one that I need
It doesn't matter what they think or what they say
I'm loving you anyway, all I know is what I feel

That is what my heart says
That is what I listen to
That's what my heart feels
That tells me what to do

That is what my heart knows
That's the only only truth I know is real
All I hear is what my heart says to me
What my heart says

What my heart says
What my heart says
