La, la, la, la, la
La, la, la, la

So let them say its wrong
For me to love you
They could never feel
The way that I do when we kiss
When we're close like this

They can't see inside my soul
They can't know the love we know
All they do is waste their time
They can never change my mind

It's what my heart says
That is what I listen to
It's what my heart feels
That tells me, tells me what to do
It's what my heart knows
That's the only, the only truth I know is real
All I hear is what my heart says to me

La, la, la, la, la
La, la, la, la
What my heart says

Let them say that I'm a fool
To fall so deeply
Cause they will never ever be
Loved so completely
How can they even talk that way?

They can't see it through my eyes
They can't feel this love inside

All their words don't mean a thing
They can't change the way I feel, no, no

It's what my heart says
That is what I listen to
It's what my heart feels
That tells me, tells me what to do

It's what my heart knows
That's the only, the only truth I know is real
All I hear is what my heart says to me

And I have never felt so sure about anything
See you are the one, the one that I need
It doesn't matter what they think
Or what they say
I'm loving you anyway, oh
All I know is what I hear

It's what my heart says
That is what I listen to
It's what my heart feels
That tells me, tells me what to do
All I hear is what my heart says to me

La, la, la, la, la
What my heart says
Oh, what my heart says
