Every night I look to the skies and wonder what we did.
Always a naive point of view that breaks us in the end.
If I could find the meaning of it all I'd take the chance.
Maybe in time, we'll walk the mile a change it if we can.

It's now and always,
How did we get this far,
did we get this far, now?
Always,
We're making a brand new start,
just a brand new start, now.
Always,
Nothing can hold me down,
never hold me down, now.
Always,
Wave goodbye to me!

Around the world,
I'll find out why we came to be.
Around the world,
the secret lies in side of he.
Around the world,
I'll find the hero inside me.

But don't run away,
'cause if it's not okay,
I'll change that world,
into something better, honey.

Night after night, we take our time in searching for the clues,
All we can find our situations, hard times to be through.
But when we side together nothing can get in our way.
Using our minds to fight the odds, now watch me save the day.

It's now and always,
How did we get this far,
did we get this far, now?
Always,
We're making a brand new start,

just a brand new start, now.
Always,
Nothing will hold me down,
never hold me down, now.
Always,
Wave goodbye to me!

Around the world,
I'll find out why we came to be.
Around the world,
a secret lies in side of he.
Around the world,
I'll find the hero inside me.

But don't run away,
'cause if it's not okay,yeah.

And you know it's gonna be raining.
And you know it's gonna be hard. (Hard!)
As long as we trust each other, nothing gonna break apart. Oh no! No!
If you wanna be somebody,
get up on your feet and go-o-o-o.
I know we're gonna meet each other,
somewhere around the globe!

Around the world,
I'll find out why we came to be.
Around the world,
the secret lies in side of he.
Around the world,
I'll find the hero inside me.

But don't run away,
'cause if it's not okay.

But don't run away,
'cause if it's not okay,
I'll change that world,
into something better, honey.
