All the time that you were standing by my side
She's that picture perfect kind
I can't believe I was so blind
Do you remember the time
You know I stepped across that line
I made you cry and that's my crime
I wish that I could just rewind

It's the evening, and you've been complaining
About our situation and all my deceiving
I know that everything is going slow
And if you want to feel better
I can tell you that it's going to be great
Yeah it's going to be good
Oh! But I would be lying to you

But these days, I'm changing
Meeting new faces
Now how am I supposed to be?
My feelings for you seem to be changing
Looking back don't look back on me

All the time that you were standing by my side
She's that picture perfect kind
I can't believe I was so blind
Do you remember the time
You know I stepped across that line
I made you cry and that's my crime
I wish that I could just rewind

I don't care if she's here, I wanted to be free
I don't care if she leaves, I wanted her to leave
It's kind of hard to see...when the world tunnel-visioned me
The shape of love I was longing for
They say believe in what you can't see
But the candy around me is so sweet it's hard to think
In my head I comprehend but I can't put it into actions
My eyes on the reason, the truth's here listen
Though I chase and chase, things keep fleeting
I had a weird dream, I must have been sleeping
Before I drift far away, I've got to seek it nearby

If I look closely, there's a beacon in my heart
Of light shining, the thing I was searching for is here
Nearer than I thought, close to your hemisphere
Now it's clear twenty/twenty cuz I'mma share
Everything and I don't care if they think I'm weird
There there nobody thinks you're weird
Ya see, I've been through it all before

And the same thing happened to me
I don't care, "wounds heal with time"
But in the meanwhile...
I'll show what I mean
Let's think of it another way
Everything we do and say defines who we are
As we live out each day
What we did was wrong at the time
But it helps us go back and rewind
It's a mistake but it ain't no crime
Our bodies together, that's love

All the time that you were standing by my side
She's that picture perfect kind
I can't believe I was so blind
Do you remember the time
You know I stepped across that line
I made you cry and that's my crime
I wish that I could just rewind

I said goodbye
I didn't know that it would all turn out this way
But now I know I realise
And I can learn from my mistakes

But these days, I'm changing
Meeting new faces
Now how am I supposed to be?
My feelings for you seem to be changing
Looking back don't look back on me

All the time that you were standing by my side
She's that picture perfect kind
I can't believe I was so blind
Do you remember the time
You know I stepped across that line
I made you cry and that's my crime
I wish that I could just rewind
