Sorry we can't do this
So sorry we can't do that
Who make these rules and these policies?
Are they so good, are they so great?
Thank you, thank you for making these life feel so grounded

We do such thing, but they tell us not to
We can do something, but they tell us not to
We can do something, but they said is nothing
Oh well what would we do?
We can do something, but they said is nothing
Oh well what would we do?

Go to school, go to college
And get yourself a real job
These are the rules you have to live
And you have to deal with

Maybe you're smart
But it doesn't mean a thing
Coz what they want is your degree
Blow them with your money
And there goes their policy

We do such thing, but they tell us not to
We can do something, but they tell us not to
We can do something, but they said is nothing
Oh well what would we do?
We can do something, but they said is nothing
Oh well what would we do?

We do such thing, but they tell us not to
We can do something, but they tell us not to
We can do something, but they said is nothing
Oh well what would we do?
We can do something, but they said is nothing
Oh well what would we do?

What goes around, shall comes around

What goes around, shall comes around

What goes around, shall comes around

What goes around, shall comes around
