I just got
Your message baby
So sad to see
You fade away
What in the world
Is this feeling
To catch a breath
And leave
Me reeling
It'll get you in the end,
Its god's revenge
Oh I know
I should come clean
But I prefer to deceive
Everyday I walk alone
And pray that god won't see me
I know its wrong, I know its wrong
Tell me why is it
I'm digging your scene
I know I'll die baby
They put you in a home to fill in
But I wouldn't call that living
I'm like a boy among men
I'd like a permanent friend
I'd like to think
That I was just myself again
Why is it I'm digging your scene
I know I'll die baby
I just got your message baby
So sad to see you fade away
I'm like a boy among men
I'd like a permanent friend
I'd like to think
That I was just myself again
Why is it I'm digging your scene
I know I'll die baby
Oh come baby come on angel
