I still count every minute
Every look in your eyes
Every time that you're with me
Every kiss, every night
Give me hope for my mission
And support on my way
We'll be living in clover
Once we get over
The dark and cloudy days

You're in my heart
You're in my spine
You're in my head
You're in my lungs
And when I die
I'll be waiting for you
To be with me

You're in my skies
You're in my sun
You're in my tears
You're in my doom
And when I'm gone
I'll be hoping that you
Will be with me

You're a reason to live on
Even after this life
One's too short for what we share
So we're living it twice
You'll be queen of my empire
You'll be glory and shine
We'll be in this together
Married forever
Until the end of time

So I'm in love
Where are you?

You're in my heart
You're in my spine
You're in my head

You're in my lungs
And when I die
I'll be waiting for you
To be with me

You're in my skies
You're in my sun
You're in my tears
You're in my doom
And when I'm gone
I'll be hoping that you
Will be with me

So give me everything you want to give to me
And tell me everything you want to say to me
Just love me anyway you like 'cause anyway you're right here in my heart
