I shouldn't be here
Me with my brokenness
Me with the holes in my wounded heart
It's perfectly clear
This world would never choose me
'cause I'm no work of art
I was headed down the slope
Had used up my hope
And that was to be the end of me
But

You believed
When nobody else could see
You believed
When the whole world gave up
You believed

Unanswered prayers
Doesn't mean you're forgotten
It just means that there's a better plan
Buried in the dirt
Dreams can go rotten cause
Even heroes lose their strength
I'm here to testify
To your sacrifice
Everyone needs a second chance

You believed
When nobody else could see
You believed
When the whole world gave up
I'm here because
You believed

You can see the whole picture
Not just the drafts or the lame mistakes
Every tree that flowers
Needs to grow from the dirt of
All that's come before
