Everyday at half past five she's waking up
Serving Johnny's breakfast, before it's time to go
Running down to catch the half past seven train
Now its time for mum to face the world again

Just the way it is, it's just another normal day
Just the way it is, it's just another day
For mum and John, and everyone
They knew they has begun
Just another normal day
It doesn't have to be that gray

Home from work and up the stairs and trough the door
Johnny is watching TV and the dog lies on the floor
Supper's ready, in and out, and I'll return
Who will get the blame, when the roast is burnt

Just the way it is, it's just another normal day
Just the way it is, it's just another day
For mum and John, and everyone
They knew they has begun
It doesn't have to be that gray
It's just another normal day

I can't be king, I can't be sailor
I can't be god for one day
But I was born right here
I won't move anywhere
This is the place where we want to stay

Just the way it is, it's just another normal day
Just the way it is, it's just another day
For mum and John, and everyone
They knew they has begun
It doesn't have to be that gray
It's just another normal day

(solo)

Just the way it is, it's just another normal day
Just the way it is, it's just another day

For mum and John, and everyone
They knew they has begun
It doesn't have to be that gray
It's just another normal day
