Standin' on the ceiling, it's alright, alright
Suspended by the dreams you seem to lose
You've been floatin' for a while, a while, can't hold on Standin' on the ceiling, baby it's alright, it's alright, alright

Somebody is tryin' to get the best of me
Congratulations song
And now your're flying like you wanna be
Right where you belong

Starin' at the wall like it's window, don't know Blinded by the stones you wish to be
You've been starin' for a while, a while, knock it down Starin' at the wall like it's a window, don't know, don't know

Somebody is tryin' to get the best of me
Congratulations song
And now you're flying like you wanna be
Right where you belong

Runnin' from the sun again, it's alright, alright
Runnin' from the dreams you seem to lose
You've been runnin' for a while, a while
You can't slow down
Runnin' from the sun again, it's alright, alright, alright

Somebody is tryin' to get the best of me
Congratulations song
And now you're flying like you wanna be
Right where you belong
Right where you belong
Right where you belong
Right where you belong
