

Corrosion Of Conformity

Distant winds bring you down like a soldier
Alive inside but your soul getting colder
And there's nothing left, nowhere to hide
Nothing left, it's genocide
You're gonna find out
(It is that way because it is)
Over now and I'm going down
What do you want me to be?
I'm the same old beast you hate to see
Just like the heavens when the light recedes
I'm forever black without a need
Now there's nothing left nothing more
Cause you lost the battle and the war
Do what are you standing here for
