Every lyric you dissect
What the fuck do you expect
We're just a fucking band
Rebellion's not the clothes you
Aren't we generally correct?
Or the way you style you hair wear
Or any pitiful design

Because your prophets shout
We don't souls, we need minds
Nothing's gonna change
And nothing's gonna change
Nothing's gonna change
Because you thrash about
Nothing's gonna change
Because your music's fast
While you're sitting on your ass
