Invalid at last smothers the working class Nihilist to be turns the scrape into a gash Walking tall and ignorant, this man is now a militant Deceiving the prophets confession to release this endless aggression

One is the soul, amplified suicide
Keeps the masses terrified
Nothing to kill, nothing to kill, nothing to kill Nothing left unsaid 'cause the snake has no head

The body fills with greed and we spill it when in need And all the slaves are on probation growing fat in a comfortable nation
So the snake keeps on recruiting we need one more royal shooting
Nothing left to lose so we create another wound

One is the soul, amplified suicide
Keeps the masses terrified
Nothing to kill, nothing to kill, nothing to kill
Nothing left unsaid 'cause the snake has no head

Fear of death is gain consuming the weak in shame It's a power we can't see but it leaves ourselves to blame
The shameless mourn another day, slithering sins fade away
But the snake is just a pawn and remains when we are gone

One is the soul amplified suicide
Keeps the masses terrified
Nothing to kill, nothing to kill, nothing to kill
Nothing left unsaid 'cause the snake has no head
