i live my life like everyday is a different fight its all out, out of hands, cant get a grip don't understand dont understand just walk away, understand just walk away
i've got my guitar to guide my life i dont want ny life held down, i've got no time and there's nothing left for me, no hope and no dreams dont wanna be left around, end up dead in the ground

All out of control, out of control you better loosen your grip, your hostilits making me sick pull the plug and end this story, pull the plug and end this story all my life you were on my back, now today i'm gonna snap everyday is the same old shit, everyday is the same bullshit!

from now im on my own!
my choice to have no reason, no reason, no reason at all my live, i strive, not to live a life of your lies i see right through your lies, i see with my own eyes
