depression sets in,
moves underneath the skin no rules set for me, my heart never bleeds!

[CH:] it's just not working for me all these things i don't need the life you choose of power and greed the rules that guide your life, always walking down that line i just can't live that way, always tend to stay

your rules, not me. your schools, not me your head, not me. well it's dead, not me my angst, not me. your games, not me my spite, not me. YOUR LIFE! not me working for me!
