Everyday I drink and try not to think
Of your face of this place of future of a waste
Can't seem to find a way off my mind
A way to cope a sign of hope I want to hang from a rope

LIES
I don't need your...
LIES
I don't need you

There's nothing to say, I can't fade away
To change my life to get this right tired of all these fight
I cannot speak I can't even think
Don't wanna eat I feel so bleak to your face I feel weak

LIES
I don't need your...
LIES
I don't need you
