Like a knife to the chest a fucking bullet would feel best Just can't feel just can't relate so much anger so much hate

When you feel dead inside my emotions I try to hide
To your face I seem calm but inside it's like a bomb

On the edge
And nothing to loose [x4]

Just can't wait to explode and you'll know my hearts gone cold Can't believe you're so wrong what the fuck is going on So confused so distraught my chest is cold my fists are hot Just wanna get outta this place smash this bottle across your face

I'll feel better when your gone you think you've done nothing wrong
And you know that pisses me off well fuck you it's your loss Please don't call please don't write and you know I'll be drunk tonight
Do you know how it feels it's so fucked up it's so unreal
