it seems i can see, something behind your eyes hiding with a cold stare, and a smooth set of lies this country tends to bleed, as you turn away you' re a puppet as they are, told what to say

[CH:] barricade the resistance, changing our lives, rules and regulations under strict enforcement, cast them away, away to die seperate the lines, seperate the lives hiding the lies of a fascist mind!

disregard their lives, numbers in a war how far will you go, settle up the score does your mind lack compassion, your heart lack control are you just a puppet doing as your told
