"Strength through pain"

Beat me down and smash my face
Leave me alone without a trace
Never said that life was easy
You never said that you would leave me

Strength through pain
You can't destroy the heart inside
Strength through pain
To your surprise I'm still alive

I don't care about being social
Impressing people is not my goal
I don't care about what you say
I add a new scar everyday

Life's hard enough with out your shit
When I was down I did not quit
You left me there when I was alone
I just needed my cuts to be sewn
One day you'll seek help from me
But my boot my boot is all you'll see
I don't need a thing from you
On my own I know what I do
