i looked out of the window saw lightning coming through to the place that i was living the place that i once knew the ghost slept next to me and offered me protection i never saw his face cause he left for resurrection please don?t go
you are all
please don?t go
you are all
the love to leave behind the need to find the new
has always been a burden
whatever i may do
one day he disappeared and left a note behind stop wonder black on white i had to loose my mind now he?s gone farewell dear ghost you took a piece of mine it?s yours don?t hesitate never come back i am fine
please don?t go
you are all
please don?t go
whatever i may do
please don?t go
please don?t go
please don?t go
please don?t go
