How does it feel when life comes into town
Suddenly overnight something has changed
Unable to think and speak what's on my mind
I hold you in my arms in my arms
Oh nobody knows you
As much as we do
Nobody knows you

The fear of losing someone
Will always be unspoken
Whether time goes slow
or time goes fast unspoken

Can't wait for tomorrow to get back to your bed
To look into your face and hope you are better
There's nothing to do for me at this moment
I wish this could all change this could all change
Oh nobody knows you
As much as we do
Nobody knows you

The fear of losing someone
Whether time goes slow
or time goes fast unspoken

How does it feel
The fear of losing someone
How does it feel
Will always be unspoken
How does it feel
The fear of losing someone
How does it feel
Will always be unspoken
