As the rain starts pouring down
You're looking at the ground
Summer dust gets washed away
Lucky you, you've lost it all
Take the big part-go for all
I'm soaked to the bone and could easily call you now
I'm sorry-you got me
It's for you, erase my mind
Save me, catch me just in time
Cracking up is normal for you and me
Keep the secret safe and quiet.
there's a low-i'm on your side
Holding the gold, which is made of paper & stone
I'm sorry-you got me
