If you want to wave me
You ought to know it's easy
The engine runs you're out of time
The clock stops do you feel fine
Just lift your arm and move your fingers each one for a while
Comeback back home, walk through and stay
Comeback back home, walk through and stay

All that you see is all that you know
And all that you are is a lost patrol forever
You are forever
You are forever

Now that you've gone to save me
I guess it's not that easy
There's not much in between us
Except the way we treat love
Get close and try to touch it
Where no one ever find it
Comeback back home, walk through and stay
Comeback back home, walk through and stay

All that you see is all that you know
And all that you are is a lost patrol forever
You are forever
You are forever
