Midnight walking away
Burnt sage
Moonlight shining our paths
Home safe
Amplified musky faith
Breathe motions
Close the doors of despair
Sleep well

Oh-oh

Wish I was more like him
To stain
All your precious beliefs
Had rays
Broken faith to your grounded
Devotion
Lines that blur all my thoughts
Ghost motion

You learn to lie, you learn to cry,
You lose your faith and you get lonely
You bet it all, you lose control,
You learn to know love is always there
Learn to do what you're told
Eat the pleasures of pain
Hurts to know what to do
Live to do what you can

Recollecting the grounds
Of grace
Dragging out all of your past
How brave
I've changed my life again
I've chosen joy instead
The skies come down and my Hands shine
If I'm beyond somehow
The here and now reach out
To hold my faith and to Find god

You learn to lie, you learn to cry,
You lose your faith and you get lonely
You bet it all, you lose control,
You learn to know love is always there
Learn to do what you're told
Eat the pleasures of pain
Hurts to know what to do
Live to do what you can

You learn to cry, you learn to die,
You lose your faith and you get lonely
You bet it all, you lose control,
You learn to know love is always...

You learn to lie, you learn to cry,
You lose your faith and you get lonely
You bet it all, you lose control,
You learn to know love is always there
Hurts to know what to do
Live to do what you can
