If the neighbors down the road
Call up and say the music's cranked a little loud
If the tin roofs are rockin'
Just apologize and invite 'em all down

If your front yard's full of parked cars
And they can hear you clear to town
It may seem a little rowdy
But that's our kind of crowd

And there ain't no law against that
Yeah, it is what it is out here where we're at
Might bend a few rules
Might tip a few back
And there ain't no law against that

You might wanna get up on the back porch
And sit in with the band
You might wanna kick back in a lawn chair
And you might wanna dance

You might wanna stay out all night howlin' at the moon
Come draggin' in at sunrise
And sleep it off 'til noon

And there ain't no law against that
Yeah, it is what it is out here where we're at
Might bend a few rules
Might tip a few back
And there ain't no law against that

If havin' this much fun's a crime
We're guilty as can be
They'd have to put us all in jail
And throw away the key

And there ain't no law against that
Yeah, it is what it is out here where we're at
We ain't hurtin' nobody
Y'all just need to relax
And there ain't no law against that

Ain't no law against that (Hell T... let's have some fun)
Live as fast as you can cause you can't get it back
And there ain't no law against that
