Bumper stickers on a subaru Save the whales and no more nukes next to a pickup with a rebel flag a couple rifles and a gun rack behind the soccer mom in the yukon and a bus full of little kids the long stretch of highway is their only common thread

[Chorus]

there they go makin the world go round got their hands on the wheel and the windows rolled down just tryin ta keep in between the lines to each his own yeah it'd be a shame if we walked and we talked and we thought the same...thats just not what he had in mind no it takes all kinds the sky turns orange, another day is gone and that taillight rolls on and on and on poetry in motion no this aint no rat race just a work in progress towards a bigger better place

[Chorus]

everybody's got their own road to fill everybody's just a spoke in the wheel...

to each his own yeah it'd be a shame if we walked and we talked and we thought the same...thats just not what he had in mind
it takes all kinds
