Black letters on a yellow sign
I used to be a part of it but now I guess for me it's time
To leave behind this tragedy
My hometown and my history my nightmare and my
misery

Balls of fire all around
I would watch it burn down

Eighteen years are long enough
To everyone I never asked to know:
I'll pack my things and go and Leave behind this tragedy
misery

Even if my car broke down
I would find my way out
Balls of fire all around
I would watch it burn down

I crossed the point of no return Only forward there's no back a lesson that I'd like to learn and
Leave behind this tragedy
My hometown and my history my nightmare in my
misery

Even if my car broke down
I would find my way out
Balls of fire all around
I would watch it burn down

To everyone I used to know:
I bat we'll never meet again so thanks for nothing join the show

Even if my car broke down I
Would find my way out
Balls of fire all around
I would watch it burn down
