I am the clouds which roam slowly over you
I am the gloving sun which burns you
I am the fullmoon which lights up your way
I am the rain which wets you
I am the wind which blows around you
I am the stars which stand in the night of heaven
I am the night which nourish you
I am the coldness in your heart
I am the darkness which surrounds your thoughts
I am the fire that devours all
I am the fear which drives you
I am the food which which you take to you
I am the wine which you trink
I am the blood the lets you live
I am the hate which gnaw at your soul
I am the torment which hurts you
I am the courage which strenghts you
I am the power which guides you
I am the fight which you sets you
I am the dragon which attacks you
I am the vampire which drinks your blood
I am the death which ends all
I am the evil which rules all
I am all
I am the Satan
