Intro

It doesn't make sense,
It doesn't feel right
Do you trust what you hear at all?
It doesn't hold true,
Why don't it feel right
Why is it so?

Verse 1

It's like
Seeking a new destination
When the home that you love is at stake
You're always making a new resolution
That you won't make the same old mistakes
It's like liking the same kind of music
It's like loving the same kind of guys
It's like taking a new road in the same direction
And livin' out the rest of your lies

Chorus:

It's like livin' left of the centre
It's like fallin' just a little too far
It's like saying you never say never
Taking it too slow Livin' just a little, too fast
Too fast

Verse 2:

What the deal with all these happy endings, when
Not a single one is true
'Cause nothing lasts forever
And it's sad when it ends
So it's only really happy when it's new
And why keep on saying that our lives are short
Is there anything that I can do that's longer?
And why try to make it so we all get along
And say that if it doesn't kill us it'll only make us stronger?
Stronger

Chorus:

It's like fallin' just a little too far

It' like sayin'you never say never Taking it too slow
Livin' just a little, Livin' just a little too
Livin' left of the centre
It's like fallin' just a little too far
It's like saying you never say never then taking it to slow
Livin' just a little,
Livin' just a little too fast Too fast
