Verse 1:

One step closer to where I started from,
Is two steps further into the past,
Three steps away from where I need to be,
Is four steps closer to where I am.

Chorus:

Ohhh, these dirty footprints,
They line the shades of grey.
All the scars and fading memories are
Leading me away
And these broken hearted lies are screaming
For all they have to say
And my heart is saying follow as I walk the other way.
Away

Verse 2:

So much to try for, so little to gain
So far to run, but so hard to stay
No one knows better but no one knows more
These are my thoughts as i
I walk past these pictures,
I'd walk through these doors,
Sat by these windows
And walked on these floors,
I've sat in this darkness,
Searching for light,
Knowing inside me, it will be alright
Alright

Chorus:

Ohhh, these dirty footprints,
They line the shades of grey.
All the scars and fading memories are
Leading me away
And these broken hearted lies are screaming
For all they have to say
And my heart is saying follow as I walk the other way.
Hey away,
Hey away
