Suspended for all time
To die would be too kind
The end will never come
It can't be done

Dormant sleeping state
Find no way to escape
Animate in a coma of glass
Years go too fast
My soul unites with the world
Eternity's story untold

No site i can't see
Hate to freedom lies in me
Coffin of ice, stone cold
Cage of glass i mold

Encased in glass, perpetual to my blood
The glass takes possession of my soul
To feel a dream is only to me
My prison encased in glass
