problems which come depressive and slow will they tell us the truth masquerade of a security world a world that is abused clearhead in a public domain a walk into affliction distrust sets the world afire send me to a vacation there's nothing more to say in this time of lies trust will kill the potency and bring you to defy unbidden - uncreasing destiny a news that is select unmasked - unbeaten liberty distance that will be expect a never ending lie from a ship that reaches the shore loosing all the hope of people there is a nevermore walk back into a time where thoughts are never free that will be your last chance dont believe what you see the expectation of you life is forever lost clouds of darkness that decay into an everlasting dust sent into a world of terror to earn the highest price born into a world of death life on earth - so nice spreading the unknown disease mankind is well sick selecting what we want to hear free speach will kill lies of distrust - control our ideas lies of distrust - ferocity appears lies of distrust - make people scream
