Left in a dream alone
where functions of death are done left in a grave of stone where functions of life are gone crawl to the abyss of souls in darkness you will rest the curtain of misery falls awaiting insensitive death

Suffer life - provoked genocide

Rotting devastation in a painful dream death awakes in a silent scream all that stands in a deadly way it's a message to your life decay takes our fear and takes our wrath to await a compulsive death all you fear is what you see to await your insanity

What is the answer to a past and glory life you have no chance when the end will arrive give up your soul your body is lost you are swallowed to rot

Cursed to die - in a backward situation living a life full of pain and frustration forgotten soul is what you bless
