"A Third Face"

Visit "A Third Face" on MotoLyrics.com

Speak... Was I morose and break this bitter silence... grin and sombre shatter this fragile glass... I was invisible with the resonance... miserable of this voice... undetectable not mine... nothing
...or even less
Lie

And hide this painful truth... you tear the cold reality... who sit upon a throne the reptile's tongue... in the ruin of my soul with many voices... I make myself scream... dreadful icons you... to worship who steal my sight... scream and cloud my thoughts... to awake the demons already so blurred... of lunacy by you I am possessed... the beast in my blood

Alas, my heart harbours two souls and a third face I wear on the outside
