"Violent Perfect Illusions"

It's a fucking disgrace how the sane and unable rule the world

I need to disconnect and scatter my violent perfect illusions

Catastrophic mind error, ghastly, bizarre, spiteful, vengeful, hateful, a mind set on destruction

Dominion of antichrist, Amen!

Would you not hate the sea that's drowning you?

Would you not curse the woods if you were lost?

I cannot see the moon nor the stars

Only the icy touch of an endless ocean

And I am so alone, so alone

No one knows my misery

You will learn, you will feel,

I'll take you with me into the depths of insanity, misery,
to hell.
