"Losing Hope"

Visit "Losing Hope" on MotoLyrics.com

This weight on my shoulders of the fate of human kind is far too much to bare I'm losing hope far too fast for what we could be hating what we've become striving to be on the top this has been engraved in our brains but does not reflect our nature but im still losing hope far too fast
I've watched others around me fall lacking in self respect lacking in the compassion this will lead us to our demise striving for the top at the expense for others pushing aside all the morals and thoughts for others this will come back to you this will lead to our demise this will haunt us for an eternity
