As we assemble on the eve of our fate we call upon the power of mighty Odin guide us to victory
we fight for glory
unity under one banner now our destiny awaits us the battle cry has sounded our might is to be tested the clash of swords fills the air The bloodshed has begun! the battle rages on as I cut open my enemies our enemies begin to fall to their knees
severed limbs
broken bones
nothing stands in our way it's time to slay the king this is ours
victory IS OURS
we bask in the glory of our battle to the victor goes the spoils
