I try to escape all of this
put you behind me forever but you are summoned to die screaming drop dead
DROP DEAD
dreaming only of your death I only see in red
the weapon in my hand
this will determine your fate
the blade slides so easily to your heart
I only dream of your death releasing the pressure
of this burden
a sense of relaxation
from your silence
no last words
just the escape
of your breath
no expression
only blood
from your mouth
no last words only death
