Six bullets through their brains face down in their misery they told him to kill the ghost along his side full of rage and
possessed to kill
kill them all
moving here in the promise of a new beginning
this quickly swept away
by the horrors of the past
catch them
kill them
these murders would haunt him
driven to insanity
the growing hate
eyes blood shot red
this eerie coldness
and voices in his head
this is truly hell
horror!
you must escape this
residing in his basement
the voices still in his head driving him to insanity this is his breaking point chasing his family with an axe they must escape the horror of this house
28 days of hell
