Call on me
If you find yourself standing in a courtyard
Of a dream that's not your own
Flashes of silver and saffron, wind off the ocean floor
You can call on me
Cause I haven't moved
Since the last time you pulled yourself through
You can call on me
Cause I haven't strayed
Since the last time you found your own way

Spinning off into the thunder
Trying to out run man kinds hunger
With blood and soil on your knees
Over those country roads, over those ghettos
Staggering through war zones now
Look at all those fires you could never put out...
Alone

Call on me
'Cause I haven't moved
Since the last time you pulled yourself through
Can call on me
Cause I haven't strayed
Since the last time you found your own way

Night brings space to city streets where you have been Wandering constellations colliding what do you know to Do?
But don't you worry, in each direction,
If you look into my eyes you will see your perfection
Call on me
'Cause I haven't moved
Since the last time you pulled yourself through
Call on me
'Cause I haven't strayed
Since the last time you found your own way (x2)
