The cost of love can be a broken heart
The cost of love can rip your world apart
It can tear you up till you're down
Spit you out, blood you dry
Yeah the cost of love can have a painful price

[Chorus:]

But the cost of being alone
Is being lonely
Getting over love from nobody
Living no life at all
And the cost of being alone is being empty
When you got no love you got nothing
Better to pay the cost of love

The cost of love can cost you nights of sleep

The cost of love can cause you pain so deep
It can wear you out wear you down
Mix you up mess up your mind
Yeah the cost of love
Can cost so much sometimes
The cost of love

[Chorus]

'Cos love can be so good sometimes
But you will never know
If you don't let love inside
Don't hide your heart away
You'll be sorry someday
The cost of love

[Chorus]
