[music: Goth, lyrics: Goth]

We're trapped within ourselves, in a prison of the mind
Clutching on to our ego, unable to break out We fear every difference, things that feel strange Used to our safe narrow world, we decline every change

We're trapped within ourselves, in a prison of the mind
Our values we've enclosed in stone, our ego we've defined

Let the speed vaporize yourself, forget your ego and past memories
Sow the seed to a higher consciousness and lead the way to final release

Free the soul... Leave the old...
Focus, and revive the Sleeping Star!

We're trapped within ourselves, in a prison of the mind
Loosing creativity and the will to break out Illusions seizes me, my mind's my only enemy
And we're feeding energies of negativity Each man a god, each man a star, we've lost the key to serenity

Doubt, no more I shall doubt No time to hesitate, it's to take all the way, I shall explore what I've found And walk the way of the expressionist!
