Hands tied behind your back awaking from a heart attack
you're hopeless and quite honestly,
I'm getting sick of the lies

Is this really what you want?
You give me hope just to destroy me
Is this really who you are?
I'm trying so hard, you disappoint me.

I would say save yourself
but you're already dead
don't look back, run away,
from everything you've ever loved

Is this really what you want?
you give me hope just to destroy me
is this really who you are?
I'm trying so hard, you disappoint me.
