These empty promises
Begin to hold me down
These aching memories
Turn back from time

Beyond my dreams
The past is closing in
Again I hear it's voice
Whispering

I am not what you see
See me I'm dying again
Again I'm too weak for this
This empty life

Help me now
I'm choking
Against my will
Drowning
Forced to smile and to live

Darkness fills my life
Again I slowly die
Life is too much for me now
Again
I wish I were not here
Facing all my fears
Take my pain
And heal me now
Again
