Ill never be Anybody's hero-Morrissey

Warm lights from the grand houses blind me Haves cannot stand have-nots
And my love is under the ground
My one true love is under the ground And ill never be ill never be ill never be anybody's hero now
ill never be
ill never be
ill never be anybody's hero now they who should love me walk right through me I am a ghost and as far as I know I haven't even died
And my love is under the ground
My one true love is under the ground
And ill never be
ill never be

ill never be anybody's hero now
ill never be
ill never be
ill never be anybody's hero now
ill never be
ill never be ill never be anybody's lover now
ill never be
ill never be
ill never be anybody's lover now things I've heard and ive seen and Ive felt and ive been tell me ill never be anybody's lover now it begins in the heart and it hurts when its true it only hurts because its true.
