Warm lights from the grand houses blind me
Haves cannot stand have-nots
And my love is under the ground
Aye one true love is under the ground
And Iâll never be
Iâll never be
Iâll never be anybodyâs hero now
Iâll never be
Iâll never be
Iâll never be anybodyâs hero now

They who should love me
Walk right through me
I am a ghost
And as far as I know I havenât even died
And my love is under the ground
My one true love is under the ground
And Iâll never be
Iâll never be
Iâll never be anybodyâs hero now
Iâll never be
Iâll never be
Iâll never be anybodyâs hero now

See as I.. See as I.. See as I..
Iâll never be
Iâll never be
Iâll never be anybodyâs lover now
Iâll never be
Iâll never be
Iâll never be anybodyâs lover now

Things Iâve heard and Iâve seen
And Iâve felt and Iâve been
Tell me Iâll never be anybodyâs lover now
It begins in the heart
And it hurts when itâs true
It only hurts because itâs true
