When your gift unfurls
When your talent becomes apparent
I will roar from the stalls
I will gurgle from the circle

The saints smile shyly
Down on you
Oh, they couldn't get over

Ooh, the balcony fool was me you fool

Jesus made this all for you love
You love, you love, you love
He couldn't get over
Your grandma's omen

Oh, lucky lisp was not wasted on you
Lucky lisp wasn't wasted on you

Da, da, da
Da, da, da
Da, da, da
